ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
RANGARAYA MEDICAL COLLEGE ALUMNI OF NORTH AMERICA, INC.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, the undersigned, incorporator, do hereby form a corporation under the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act, and do declare:

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the Corporation shall be Rangaraya Medical College Alumni of North America, Inc.

ARTICLE II

Purposes

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

(1) To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, research, or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(2) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any Executive Committee Member, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), and no Executive Committee Member, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Under no circumstances shall the Corporation make loans to officers and Executive Committee Members.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended; or by an organization to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(4) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed as set forth in Article IV.

ARTICLE III

Powers

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers, in addition to the general powers provided by statute:

(1) To accept, acquire, receive, take, and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree, or otherwise, for any of its objectives and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature or description and wherever situated.

(2) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objectives and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(3) To borrow money, and from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the Corporation, wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.

(4) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property as its Executive Committee shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(5) The Corporation shall have the power to make payments for the purposes of the Corporation herein referred to out of either the principal or the income of the Corporation, and to accumulate income from the property in its possession as such, provided that such accumulations are not unreasonable in amount, duration, use or investment, to such an extent that such accumulations result in a denial to the Corporation of exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or a denial to the Corporation of the benefits of exemption from the payment of income taxes as provided under any applicable laws and statutes of the United States, whether now in effect or hereafter adopted.

(6) In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which now are or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the Corporation, subject to the further limitation and condition that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this certificate, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of the Corporation and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended and by an organization to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE IV

Duration

The duration of this Corporation shall be perpetual. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE V

Members

The Corporation shall have members as permitted in the By-laws.

ARTICLE VI

The number of Executive Committee Members of the Corporation shall never be less than three (3) and shall be elected for such term and in such manner as the By-Laws shall prescribe. Any member of the Executive Committee may be removed at any time and without assigning any cause therefor, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members, if any, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Executive Committee Members, as provided in the By-Laws, and written notification of such removal to such Executive Committee Member so removed, who shall, forthwith upon receipt of such notice, be considered as removed from the Executive Committee.

(2) Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Executive Committee may be taken without a meeting if, prior to such action, a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Executive Committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Executive Committee. Any such written consent shall have the same force and effect as a resolution, duly resolved at a meeting of the Executive Committee.

(3) The Corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon its Executive Committee in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon it by statute.

ARTICLE VIII
